GLOBAL REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2010

Daniel M. Neidich
CEO
Dune Real Estate Partners

Mr. Neidich is Chief Executive Officer of Dune Real Estate Partners. Dune runs a number of real estate private equity investment funds with combined equity capital of over $1.5 billion. Dune's real estate funds control over $5 billion of real estate in the US and Western Europe.

Prior to joining Dune, Mr. Neidich was at Goldman Sachs, where he was a member of the firm's Management Committee, co-head of the Merchant Banking Division and Chairman of the Whitehall Investment Committee. Mr. Neidich joined Goldman Sachs in 1978 in the Real Estate Banking Department. In 1984, Mr. Neidich became a partner of Goldman Sachs and in 1990 he became head of Goldman's Real Estate Department. In 1992, he formed the Real Estate Principal Investment Area; in 1998 he became co-head of the Merchant Banking Division; and in 1999 he joined the firm's Management Committee.

In 1991, under Mr. Neidich's direction, Goldman Sachs raised the first Whitehall fund to invest in real estate opportunities. Mr. Neidich ran the Whitehall funds through his departure from Goldman in 2003. During this period, the Whitehall Funds raised over $12 billion of total equity and purchased over $50 billion of real estate interests worldwide.

Mr. Neidich is Chairman of the Real Estate Roundtable and former Chairman of the International Advisory Board of the Real Estate Academic Initiative at Harvard University and is a member of Columbia Business School's MBA Real Estate Program Advisory Board as well as the International Advisory Board of Eurohypo AG. He is a Trustee of the Urban Land Institute and a past Trustee of the International Council of Shopping Centers as well as a former member of the Board of Governors of the Real Estate Board of New York.

Mr. Neidich is a member of the Board of Directors of General American Investors Company, Inc., and of Capmark, the successor company to GMAC Commercial Mortgage. He is the former Chairman of the Board of Cadillac Fairview Corp. and a former board member of Rockefeller Center Properties Trust, Strategic Hotel Capital, and Thomas Property Group.

Mr. Neidich serves on the boards of Prep for Prep, The National Child Study Center, and is a former member of the Board of Governors of The Nature Conservancy and the Museum of Modern Art. He received an M.B.A. from Stanford University Graduate School of Business in 1974 and a B.A. from Yale University in 1972.
