

EUROPEAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT

Mark Williams

Executive Director

Rivington Hark

Mark is one of the cofounders of RivingtonHark, focusing on strategic master planning, stakeholder engagement, investment and funding. He was non-exec Chair of the Government Retail Property Taskforce from 2012 to 2014 and President of Revo in 2018.

RivingtonHark is focussed on creating, evolving and improving major town and city centres. That is all we do.

We do this through the application of asset, development, and investment management skills.

We currently have projects exceeding £1bn. Our partners are split between both the public sector and global funds where we co invest where applicable.

Currently we have in excess of £200m of construction due to complete this year including; Copr Bay in Swansea, Northgate in Chester, and Newcastle City Centre. We have over £300m of developments in the planning stage and we have launched the UK's first ESG orientated fund which is targeting Retail and Leisure. To date we have invested some £230m including Victoria - Leeds (from Hammerson), Clayton Square - Liverpool and Liberty Centre - Romford. Overall RivingtonHark have transacted some £330m over the last 12 months.
