

Global Real Estate Summit 2019

Lucy Fletcher

Managing Director, International Real Estate
Portfolio Management
QuadReal Property Group

Lucy Fletcher joined QuadReal as Managing Director, International Portfolio Management in June 2017. As Portfolio Manager for QuadReal's International Portfolio Lucy is focused on overall portfolio strategy whilst growing a high quality diversified international investment portfolio.

With extensive global advisory and asset management experience, Lucy brings a deep knowledge of market trends and strategy to the QuadReal leadership team, having been directly involved in more than $12 billion worth of global real estate transactions. She was formerly Managing Director of JLL, where she was responsible for facilitating cross border investments and advising institutional clients on international strategies for both debt and equity capital transactions in North America and Asia Pacific. Previously, she held senior asset management positions with Merrill Lynch (Asia Pacific) Limited and New Star Asset Management in Asia Pacific.

Lucy holds an M.A. with honors in Architectural Design from University of Edinburgh and a Postgraduate Diploma in Estate Management from South Bank University, London. She is a member of INREV and ULI and has previously served on the RICS board in the Midwest and British Columbia.