

Global Real Estate Summit 2022

Alicia Glen

Founder and Managing Principal
MSquared

Alicia Glen is the Founder and Managing Principal of MSquared, a real estate impact investing and development platform focused on promoting affordability, sustainability and inclusion in projects and the industry. Alicia is a former New York City Deputy Mayor where she oversaw more than 25 city agencies, a $100bn capital budget and was the architect of “Housing New York” and several other ground-breaking programs and policy initiatives to diversify the City’s economic base and catalyze quality jobs while also making strategic investments in the arts, parks and transportation systems essential to growing a fun and equitable city.

Prior to being named Deputy Mayor, Alicia was the Head of the Goldman Sachs Urban Investment Group, investing over $5bn in transformational, mixed-use projects and innovative public private partnerships. A graduate of Columbia Law School and Amherst College, she is a nationally recognized expert in urban development, infrastructure finance, impact investing and housing policy.

www.dlapiperresummit.com