Phil Williams

Executive Vice President Building and Human Performance

Delos

 phil-williams-1580779b

At Delos, Phil Williams directs the confluence of buildings, data and people for "SMARTer and HEALTHier" buildings and communities. The improved performance of people in the workplace, for themselves and for business, is the greatest untapped potential of any initiative present in today's conversation. Mr. Williams has spent 38 years in the commercial design, engineering, construction and development industry. He holds advisory roles with Center for the Built Environment (CBE), Eco-Districts, the Well Living Laboratory (a Delos-Mayo Clinic research collaborative), Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory (LBNL), FLEXLAB industry advisory council, and is a co-author of The Healthy Work Place NUDGE.
