

GLOBAL REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2017

Mitchell N. Schear
JBG Smith

Mitchell N. Schear is the President of Vornado/Charles E. Smith. He directs the performance and growth of Vornado's extensive 20+ million square foot portfolio in the Washington, DC region.

Prior to joining Vornado in April 2003, Mr. Schear spent 15 years at The Kaempfer Company, where, as President, he oversaw all of the company's development, leasing, and management activities.

Mr. Schear is well known for leading the development of some of Washington's most iconic projects, including The Warner, 1999K, WestEnd25, 800 17th Street/PNC Place, and, most recently, The Bartlett – the largest new apartment project in the DC region, featuring 700 apartment units atop a new Whole Foods Market.

In Crystal City (where his company owns over 8 million square feet), his placemaking vision has transformed the neighborhood into a vibrant, creative community that has become home to a growing innovation hub and great restaurants/retail concepts.

Mr. Schear has served on a number of boards on behalf of the real estate industry and the community, including: The Washington Convention and Sports Authority (now EventsDC), Executive Committee member of the Federal City Council, the Downtown DC Business Improvement District, the Corporate Board of Arena Stage, the Johns Hopkins University Carey Business School Real Estate and Infrastructure Advisory Board, Theatre Washington, The Field School, and The Lowell School. He is currently Board Chair of Higher Achievement. He also serves on the Governor's Advisory Council on Revenue Estimates for the Commonwealth of Virginia.

In 2007, Mr. Schear was recognized by the District of Columbia Building Industry Association (DCBIA) with its highest honor, the Achievement Award. In 2015, Mr. Schear was honored by Transwestern as the Public Company Trendsetter of the Year in recognition of his legacy of innovation, quality and many contributions to the Washington community. And in 2016, Mr. Schear was honored by Higher Achievement for his leadership and commitment to helping at-risk youth excel and succeed.

www.dlapiperresummit.com

GLOBAL REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2017

Mr. Schear has a B.A. from Hobart College, and earned his M.B.A. at the George Washington University.

www.dlapiperresummit.com

© 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.