

EUROPEAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2018

John German
Head of Residential Europe
Invesco

John German joined Invesco Real Estate (IRE) in April 2013 and is the senior director of residential investment responsible for spearheading the firm's European residential expertise and investments in Europe for global institutional investors.

Since his arrival at IRE, the firm has concluded a number of European residential acquisitions in the UK, CEE, Spain and Germany with current assets under management of c.£823m. This is building on IRE's existing expertise in the multi-family sector in the US and Asia where IRE has over 30 years' experience and c.£13bn invested. IRE is one of few real estate managers able to offer global residential expertise.

John has over 29 years' residential industry experience covering transactions, developments, valuations as well as asset and property management on behalf of institutional investors. Prior to joining IRE, John spent 12 years at Grosvenor, where he was the head of residential strategy and was previously at Aberdeen Property Investors as director of residential fund management. In these roles, John raised, invested and managed c.£200m in two residential funds on behalf of UK and European institutional investors. He is also skilled in investment in the wider universe of the student and serviced apartment sectors.

John is a Member of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors, has a BSc (Hons) in Rural Land Management and is a member of the British Property Federation (BPF) and Investment Property Forum (IPF).

www.dlapiperresummit.com/european