

EUROPEAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2018

Matthias Ummenhofer

Founding Partner

Mojo Capital

Matthias is founder and managing partner of mojo.capital, a collaborative investment management firm to capitalise on the digital opportunity in Europe. mojo.capital is advising Mojo Digital One, a Luxembourg based late stage equity fund that invests in the most promising European-born digital technology high growth companies through and alongside Funds, Business Angels and Family offices. The fund sources investment opportunities through investments in the best European Venture Capital Funds.

Prior to mojo.capital, Matthias has been building and leading European Investment Fund's Technology Investment business since 2001. He has been invested and was involved with some of the most dynamic and successful technology investors to emerge in Europe in the last 18 years. Under his leadership, EIF's technology investment business has grown substantially; with over EUR 4.7bn committed in or alongside more than 260 funds, business angels and family offices at the time he left in September 2014. He had a key role in raising and managing major third-party technology investment mandates such as the ERP-EIF Dachfonds, the UK Future Technologies Fund, the Dutch Venture Initiative or co-investment mandates such as the European Angels Fund.

Matthias is constantly engaged in the technology and entrepreneurial ecosystem as an angel investor, mentor, advisor and board member. He is member of the Startup Europe Advisory Board, an initiative of the European Commission, which falls under its priority of the 'Digital Single Market'.
