

EUROPEAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2018

Cristiano Stampa
Senior Director Transactions
Invesco

Cristiano joined Invesco Real Estate in January 2017 and has over 16 years' real estate experience.

At Invesco, he coordinates a team of 7 professionals in Paris, Madrid and Milan to run and develop the transactions activity for this region. In addition, he coordinates the debt investment strategy in Europe for clients.

Prior to joining Invesco, Cristiano has started his career at Deutsch Bank Group at the real estate private equity investment arm (REOG).

He spent 13 years at Generali, where he started the AM and transactions team in Milan before setting up the regulated real estate fund management platform in Luxembourg. From 2008 in Paris, he has been successively lead for Generali Real Estate the international funds, the debt investment program, and international transactions.

Cristiano has obtained a finance degree at Luigi Bocconi University in Milan and completed a Generali Academy MBA. Cristiano is based in the Paris office.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/european