

EUROPEAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2018

Francesco de Blasio
Co-Head of Real Estate, Italy
DLA Piper

Francesco De Blasio has considerable experience in a vast range of Real Estate transactions, advising major Italian and international clients.

His experience, gained over 15 years of activity in the Real Estate sector, varies from advising clients on the acquisition of complex property portfolios, directly or through investment structures such as real estate investment funds - to corporate joint ventures aimed at real estate developments.

Francesco also focuses on the main commercial Real Estate contracts, with particular regard to specific categories of properties such as hotels, sports facilities and logistic facilities. He is also actively involved in the hospitality and leisure sector, as he advises on a regular basis institutional investors on the acquisition or disposal of hotel businesses and on the negotiation of hotel management contracts and of hotel property and business leases.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/european © 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.