

EUROPEAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2018

Philippa Gill
Partner
Verdextra

Philippa joined Verdextra in 2015 where she heads the Real Estate group. She has over 15 years' experience in private equity and real estate, as well as first-hand experience across the property life cycle.

Currently, Philippa is leading a number of projects focusing on health and wellbeing within the built environment, and she also has a particular interest in circular economy solutions for property.

Prior to joining Verdextra, she was global co-head of sustainability at Tishman Speyer and has also managed transformation, construction and software projects. She has significant client-side experience, and has worked for some of the largest private equity companies in the world. She has also held positions as Head of Human Resources, Operations Director and Property Systems Manager.

Philippa is a graduate of Clare College, Cambridge and speaks French, Spanish and German in addition to her native English.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/european © 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.