

EUROPEAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2018

Nils Hübener

Chief Investment Officer

BNP Paribas Real Estate Investment Management

Nils Hübener joined BNP Paribas Real Estate Investment Management in 2016 as Chief Investment Officer.

Before joining BNP Paribas Real Estate Investment Management, Nils served for 10 years as the Head of Real Estate Investments of SEB Asset Management, a subsidiary of one of the biggest Swedish Banks SEB. From 2013 onwards, he was also responsible for Asset Management of the European Portfolio of SEB Asset Management. Prior to joining SEB Asset Management, Nils worked with Deutsche Bank Real Estate, first as Vice President for International Acquisitions covering mainly the UK and US markets and later as Head of Transactions Western and Southern Europe. Nils started his career in Real Estate with the Berlin based company IBI Real Estate as Acquisition Manager. He then moved on to work for IBI in London and later in Paris, heading the small branches of IBI in both cities.

Nils completed studies in Urban and Regional Planning (Dipl.-Ing.) in Berlin and Oxford and holds a Master Degree in European Property Development and Planning (University College London).

www.dlapiperresummit.com/european

© 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.