

EUROPEAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2018

Moses Gottlieb

Chairman of the board & CEO

Cloudscraper

Moses Gottlieb is a serial entrepreneur who began his business career at age 14. Since that time he has successfully launched, operated and sold businesses in various industries on a number of continents.

Moses co-founded Cloudscraper in May 2014 as the world's only commercial real estate exchange and has since attracted hundreds of users representing assets in excess of $200 billion. The company has developed cutting-edge technology and tools to make the entire deal instigation, discovery and management processes substantially more efficient, simpler, and faster.

Unifying all trading participants, Cloudscraper links trading opportunities, stakeholders, their advisors, and equity and debt capital into an integrated network with the realistic ability to realise asset sales in as little as one week. Prior to Cloudscraper, Moses was the founder and of MGFI Holdings LLC, an investment firm with operations in the US, Israel and Germany. .
