

ISRAEL REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2019

Fabian Mühlen

Partner, Joint Head of German Real Estate

DLA Piper

Fabian Mühlen focuses on complex real estate transactions. He is equally familiar with share deal and asset deal structures. His work also covers sale-and-lease-back transactions, portfolio transactions and project developments, as well as advising purchasers and banks in connection with acquisition finance.

Besides Fabian's real estate transaction experience, he advises real property owners on all matters relating to asset and facility management, starting with the conclusion of lease agreements, the arrangement and negotiation of agreements with project managers, development and construction companies, legal advice during construction works and real estate related litigation.

Fabian heads jointly with Lars Reubekeul the German Real Estate group of DLA Piper.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/israel

© 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.