

ISRAEL REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2019

Rainer Nonnengässer

CEO

MPC Micro Living Development GmbH

Rainer Nonnengässer (born 1963) is CEO at MPC Micro Living Development GmbH, a subsidiary of MPC Capital, Hamburg based Investment and Asset Manager. Since 2014 MPC Capital is developing Micro Living-Apartments for students, young professionals and commuters under the brand STAYTOO.

He has more than 20 years' experience in the real estate and financial industry. After working at the investment company Union Investment, the trained banker held various management positions and board positions within the AXA Group since 1998.

From 2010 to 2013 Mr. Nonnengässer was CEO of YOUNIQ AG (one of the market leaders for student housing). He has directed all project development, asset management, sale & purchase activities and was in charge of ongoing improvement of operational processes and operational management of student accommodation sites as well as for investor relation and institutional clients.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/israel