Nina Kampler
Founder and President
Kampler Advisory Group

Nina Kampler has over 35 years of industry experience as a lawyer, broker, restructuring advisor and leasing expert. She formed Kampler Advisory Group in 2012 to provide opportunistic value-add advisory services to the retail real estate industry. Nina deploys her unique combination of legal and analytical skills, deep market knowledge, vast network of curated relationships, keen ability to discern fine-tuned trends in the consumer goods industry and real estate marketplace, and her rich familiarity with the retail real estate landscape throughout the USA, to resolve retail real estate situations.

From 2010 through 2012, she was Senior Managing Director of CBRE's Retail Services Group, managing the New York Tri-State retail brokerage platform and heading the Urban Retail Group in the Americas, integrating the high-street retail practice across the US with the practice groups in Europe.

Prior to CBRE, Ms. Kampler served as Executive Vice President for Hilco Real Estate from 2004 to 2010. She directed their strategic retail and corporate solutions group and led retail business development. Ms. Kampler collaborated with major national and international retailers and commercial companies to implement real estate portfolio restructuring strategies, and includes Starbucks, Tumi, and GEOX, amongst her clients.

Previous to that, she spent 16 years at Polo Ralph Lauren Corporation, serving as their Vice President, Retail and Real Estate Counsel. In that capacity, she negotiated all store and corporate real estate transactions throughout the U.S. and Canada. She also held the position of acting General Counsel for Club Monaco.

Previous to Polo Ralph Lauren, Nina practiced law at Coudert Brothers and Richards & O'Neil, both in New York.

Ms. Kampler is a member of the ICSC US Law Conference Committee, has served on both the Advisory Board of the Georgetown University School of Law Advanced Commercial Leasing Institute and the Board of Governors (founding member) of the National Retail Tenants Association. She has also served as Associate Dean of the School of Retailing of the University of Shopping Centers at Wharton. She is a frequent panelist, lecturer and guest columnist for many organizations, including ICSC, ICSC Law Forum Europe, Shopping Center Roundtable, NYU
