

ISRAEL REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2019

Eran Baram

Chief Operating Officer
Cloudscaper Exchange

Eran has over 20 years experience in the technology and telecommunications industry. He began his career in the Israeli branch of Standard & Poor's Equity Services. He was a key member of the founding team of Med Nautilus where he oversaw the implementation of a $500m submarine cable and data centres project and helped scale the company from infancy to a $200m a year Multinational managing telecom assets in Latin America, Europe and the Mediterranean. Following a takeover by the Telecom Italia Group, Eran served in a number of executive positions in strategy and corporate development. He later served as commercial director for Xelemax, a leading provider of network optimisation solutions for the telecoms industry. He has key experience in international operations, corporate & business development, leadership and strategy.

He is a board member of several of Cloudscaper subsidiaries

www.dlapiperresummit.com/israel

© 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.