

ISRAEL REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2019

David Zisser

Founder

Omnam Investment Group

Founded Omnam Group in 2012, a rapidly growing global real estate development company which expertise lies in medium to large-scale hotels, aparthotels, residential and mixed-use developments. Omnam constantly seek out unique development opportunities and manage all aspects of the process, from identification and inception through to conceptualisation, delivery and completion. Today Omnam Group has ongoing projects worldwide and is well known for its vision to source and develop distinctive real estate icons. Omnam collaborates with leading hotel operators such as Marriott International and its phenomenal W Hotels brand and Rezidor hotel group as well as world renowned designers and architects, creating highly polished design-led projects while delivering significant added value to investors and local communities.

Before founding Omnam Group David has been supervising the founding of b-apart hotels including full Business strategy and construction management, which led to a strategic relations between both. David has a BA in politics affairs, economics and finance & a MRE in real estate.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/israel

© 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.