

DLA PIPER ITALY REAL ESTATE SUMMIT

Rainer Nonnengässer

Managing Director

MPC Micro Living Development

Rainer is a Managing Director at MPC Micro Living Development GmbH, a subsidiary of MPC Capital, Hamburg based Investment and Asset Manager. Since 2014 MPC Capital has been developing Micro Living-Apartments for students, young professionals and commuters under the brand STAYTOO.

He has more than 20 year experience in the real estate and financial industry. After working at the investment company Union Investment, the trained banker held various management positions and board positions within the AXA Group since 1998.

From 2010 to 2013 Rainer was CEO of YOUNIQ AG (one of the market leaders for student housing). He directed all project development, asset management, sale & purchase activities and was in charge of ongoing improvement of operational processes and operational management of student accommodation sites as well as for investor relation and institutional clients.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/italy

© 2018 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.