

DLA PIPER ITALY REAL ESTATE SUMMIT

Mario Vacirca
Senior Manager
Accenture Operations

Mario is a leading in EALA Market the Energy & Carbon Management team within Accenture's Energy Demand & Carbon Management practice area.

At Accenture, Mario is responsible for delivering a comprehensive set of outsourced services and expert strategy support, customized to client needs, enabling them to better manage their operating costs, improve profitability, and meet their sustainability goals, also by integrating Facility Management and Energy Demand Management.

Mario is also leading the Milano Delivery Center - for Energy & Facility monitoring.

Mario has more than 10 years of experience in the area of energy and facility management. Before Accenture, he worked six years as Business Development Director for private markets in one of the leading Italian Facility Management Company with more than 2B€ of revenues and + 15K employees In this role Mario has started developing the integration between energy efficiency program and facility management fully manage transformation program. The main project was a multiyear contract (more than 120M€) with a primary Italian Retail Group. The achieved saving in the first year was more than 15%.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/italy