

DLA PIPER ITALY REAL ESTATE SUMMIT

Graham Mackie

Head of Real Estate Asia Pacific

UBS Real Estate

Graham Mackie is responsible for managing UBS Asset Management's Real Estate Asia Pacific team and executing the regional strategy, investing and managing real estate and engaging with clients across the region. He also provides an APAC perspective into the overall global strategy of UBS Asset Management, Real Estate & Private Markets. Graham is a member of the UBS Asset Management, Real Estate & Private Markets Management Committee.

Prior to this, Graham was the Regional Head of UBS Asset Management, Real Estate Multi-Manager (MM-RE) team in APAC, (based in Singapore) where he was responsible for investment in multiple real estate funds across the Asia Pacific region. In addition, Graham was involved in the marketing of MM-RE products and services to the client base in the APAC region.

Prior to joining UBS in 2008, Graham was a Financial Analyst at AXA REIM Japan (2006–2008), where he helped establish AXA REIM's operation in Japan and was responsible for investing in both direct and indirect Japanese real estate and developing client relationships. Before that, Graham was an Analyst at AXA REIM London (2003–2006), where he was part of a team which launched, invested and managed the first London listed pan-European real estate company. Graham also worked at AXA IM Paris (2002–2003) where he was involved in capital raising for a variety of asset classes.

Graham sits on the Management Board of ANREV. In addition, Graham is a CFA Charterholder.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/italy