

DLA PIPER ITALIAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT

Giulia Fradegrada

Head of Investment Italy
GARBE

Giulia Fradegrada, as Head of Investment Italy, is responsible for overseeing new acquisitions for GARBE in Italy. She has been part of the GARBE team since the opening of the Italian branch, working alongside Country Head Marco Grassidonio. Over the years, she has supported the development of the office through its initial phases, structuring, and consolidation, and has been directly involved in all of the group's investments in Italy, from sourcing opportunities to execution.

With over eight years of experience in the real estate sector, Giulia has developed a solid expertise in logistics real estate investments. Prior to joining GARBE, she worked in asset management and transactions for two leading pan-European real estate companies. Her educational background includes a degree in Built Environment and Urban Planning from Politecnico di Milano, along with international experience at the University of the West of England in Bristol.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/italy

© 2024 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.