

DLA PIPER ITALIAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT

Silvia Rovere

Confindustria Assoimmobiliare's President
Confindustria Assoimmobiliare

University of Turin alumna, Silvia Rovere has over twenty years of expertise both in private equity and real estate finance.

Silvia Rovere is currently Confindustria Assoimmobiliare's President, and since 2020 founder and CEO of Sensible Capital.

From 2003 to 2005 she had been CFO at Patrimonio dello Stato, an Italian Ministry of the Economy controlled company, managing real estate public funds, and adding value from privatization of State-owned real estate assets.

In 2009, Silvia Rovere served as Head of Quality Business Development of Aedes Group, and from 2009 to 2013 she had been Managing Director of REAM SGR, where she successfully completed the first turnaround phase other than the three-year growth plan.

Silvia Rovere worked at Morgan Stanley SGR Italy from 2014 and served as CEO until 2020.

Along with her professional activity, she has been academically active for the Department of Political Economy and the Department of Commercial Law of the University of Turin - the Luigi Einaudi Center - and the Executive master's in real estate finance of SDA Bocconi.

She is a Fellow member of RICS, a member of the Executive Committee of ULI Italy, and a member of the Steering Committee of ResPublica Foundation, one of the most important Italian think tank.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/italy