

DLA PIPER ITALY REAL ESTATE SUMMIT

Guido Alberto Inzaghi

Partner

Belvedere Inzaghi & Partners

Guido is a partner of the law firm Belvedere Inzaghi & Partners. He used to be co-head of the real estate department and head of the town planning practice of DLA Piper, and is specialized in planning, environmental and public partnership law.

Guido assists private and public, national and international companies, as well as central public authorities and local entities. With regards to local planning and urban regeneration his most important mandates include Porta Nuova, Scali Ferroviari, Santa Giulia as well as several construction and refurbishment projects of important sports facilities. As to the sale of public properties, he was instructed by CDPI Sgr SpA, Invimit Sgr Spa, the Province of Trento and several international investors.

He is often commenting planning and construction matters for Il Sole 24 Ore and is constantly in the first tiers of international and national legal directories. He taught planning and environmental law at the Milan Politecnico and was President of the Urban Land Institute for Italy.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/italy

© 2018 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.