

DLA PIPER ITALIAN REAL ESTATE SUMMIT

Pertti Vanhanen
Managing Director Europe
Cromwell Property Group

As Managing Director of Cromwell Property Group in Europe, Pertti Vanhanen has full operational responsibility for running the European business.

Pertti joined Cromwell in 2021 and is a seasoned leader in the real estate industry with over 30 years' experience. He has held several senior roles at a number of leading European management organisations throughout his career, most recently as Global Co-head of Real Estate at Aberdeen Standard Investments.

While at Aberdeen Standard Investments and Aberdeen Asset Management (AAM), Pertti led several major corporate and real estate transactions, including the merger of AAM and SLI's real estate divisions, establishing the group's Asian real estate organisation and the launch of several successful funds and trusts including pan European residential funds, Nordic funds and the first ever open-ended property fund in Finland.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/italy

© 2022 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.