

MIDDLE EAST REAL ESTATE SUMMIT 2018

Paul Latta

Partner
DLA Piper

Paul's core practice focuses on both conventional and Islamic finance products with experience across the full spectrum of banking and finance transactions, including leveraged and acquisition finance, derivatives and capital markets, asset and project finance, general bank lending, restructuring and insolvency.

Having spent over eight years working in the Middle East, based in both Saudi Arabia and the UAE, Paul has led many of the largest and most innovative banking and finance transactions undertaken in the region to date and is regularly cited by the main independent legal directories as a leader in his field.

Like many leading practitioners in Saudi Arabia Paul has been heavily drawn into the regulatory reforms which form part of Vision 2030, including coordinating the drafting of the new VAT law and its implementing regulations.

www.dlapiperresummit.com/middle-east

© 2019 DLA Piper. DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. All rights reserved. Attorney advertising.